

College of Pastoral Supervision and Psychotherapy

DIRECTORY

Fall 2011 Edition

(4th Quarter)

PREFACE

All certifications listed herein expire annually on March 31 and must be renewed. For updated information on the certification status of particular persons, contact CPSP Registrar, Barbara McGuire, cpsregistrar@gmail.com.

This directory lists the currently certified members of the College of Pastoral Supervision and Psychotherapy as well as significant consultants to the community and persons in process who have not yet received certification. Certification is printed in bold type directly under the name listing.

Diplomate in Pastoral Psychotherapy signifies competency in practice of pastoral counseling or pastoral psychotherapy.

Diplomate in Pastoral Supervision signifies competency to direct training programs in clinical pastoral education.

Pastoral Counselor

certification signifies formal theological education and four units of clinical pastoral education, or its equivalent. This certification category is on a par with Clinical Chaplain, but is a certification generally relevant to congregational ministry.

Clinical Chaplain

certification signifies board certification for those who have both formal theological education and four units of clinical pastoral education, or its equivalent.

Associate Clinical Chaplain

signifies what used to be known as lay chaplain. It is a certification for persons who do not have the generally accepted levels of formal theological education required of clergy.

Emeritus

signifies those who have honorably retired from active work.

Member

signifies membership in the community and is not a certification category.

Please send any changes of address or email addresses to:

Barbara A. McGuire at cpsregistrar@gmail.com

This Directory lists all certified and non-certified members of the College of Pastoral Supervision and Psychotherapy. Any persons representing themselves as CPSP-certified and not listed in this directory, are misrepresenting themselves.

This Directory is updated quarterly.
