

Faith Groups' Website Links

Per the Standards of the CPSP Community, and as a certifying member organization of the COMISS Network, we expect all credentialed members to establish and maintain a good professional relationship with their religious endorsing bodies. For the convenience of the chapters, which are charged with the responsibility of ensuring that all members of their chapter are properly endorsed, we are listing a number of the religious endorsing agencies and their points of contact.

We ask that as new endorsing bodies are identified and as the religious endorsing bodies' contacts change, that the chapters notify Perry Miller and Barbara McGuire so that they may keep this listing current.
